

- District Attorney, Victim/Witness Assistance Program: 831-755-5072; 24/7 Crisis Line Operated by the YWCA: (800) 992-2151, 831-757-1001, 831-372-6300; www.co.monterey.ca.us/da
 - Provides services to victims/witnesses of all types of crimes, including homicide, assault, domestic violence, and rape. Services include crisis intervention, emergency assistance, resource counseling, and orientation to the criminal justice system and court escort.
- Domestic Violence/ Anger Management Groups managed by Community Human Services: Salinas 831-757-7915, Monterey 831-394-4622; www.chservices.org
 - Probation certified group treatment for domestic violence offenders. Separate groups for men and women conducted in English and possibly in Spanish by trained facilitators. $25 per weekly session. Services not covered by Medi-Cal.
- Family Violence Unit of Monterey County Probation Department: 831-784-5799; www.co.monterey.ca.us/probation
 - This unit offers probationers and families of probationers involved in domestic violence. Provides referrals to domestic violence intervention and anger management programs in Monterey County certified by the department. Two other programs of the department are the Child Advocate Program, for probationers or families of probationers who have a child, age 0-5, and the Child Abusers Program.
- Harmony at Home: 831-625-5160; www.harmony-at-home.org
 - Provides services to children who are victims/witnesses of domestic violence. Sticks and Stones is a school-based and extended family counseling program, offered at no cost to the student, that helps these children and their families learn to communicate in healthy, non-violent ways. Other programs serve relative caregivers and teens who are involved in issues of domestic violence. On-site counseling for couples, families, teens, and children. Fees for this counseling offered on a sliding fee scale.
- Homeward Bound: 831-384-3322; <http://www.shelteroutreachplus.org/homeward.html>
 - Homeward Bound is an 18 to 24 month transitional living program that provides a community setting for single men/women with children and married couples with children. Homeward Bound allows these families to take an active step toward an independent, productive, and violence-free life through employment and educational opportunities.

- Lawson Safe House operated by YWCA of the Monterey Peninsula: 24-hour crisis line Monterey 831-372-6300 and Salinas 831-757-1001; Tel 831-372-6300; www.ywcamc.org
 - A seventeen-bed emergency shelter for battered women and their children, operated by the YWCA at an undisclosed location in Monterey County.
- Monterey County Rape Crisis Centers: Crisis Line Monterey 831-375-4357, Crisis Line Salinas and South County 831-424-4357, Tel Salinas Office 831-771-0411, Tel Monterey Office 831-373-3955; www.mtryrapecrisis.org
 - The centers offer crisis intervention, advocacy and counseling for victims of sexual abuse, family and friends. Survivors accompanied through medical, law enforcement and/or court processes. Counseling on domestic violence when it is associated with sexual assault or rape. Services in English and Spanish.
- (SART) Sexual Assault Response Team: 831-648-7731; www.mtyhd.org
 - Women wanting to pursue legal action should call law enforcement or the Monterey County Rape Crisis Center for referral to this program. Victims of sexual assault are provided with sensitive specialty services which include medical and legal evidence gathering necessary to get perpetrators convicted in court. Services are in English and Spanish. No charge for exam to collect evidence.
- Shelter Outreach Plus Emergency Shelters: Salinas 831-422-2201, Seaside 831-394-8372, call 2-1-1 for emergency shelter availability; www.shelteroutreachplus.org
 - Two emergency shelters, one in Salinas and one in Seaside, for homeless women, including victims of domestic violence. Shelter is accessible 24 hours a day. Women are limited to a 30-day stay, however, may apply for an extension. Job skill assessment, food, clothing, and family case management also provided. Long term transitional housing may be available to those who have been in the emergency shelter first. Services in English and Spanish.
- YWCA Counseling Center: Crisis Line: (800) 992-2151, Salinas 831-757-1001, Monterey 831-372-6300; Salinas Tel 831-422-8602, Monterey Tel 831-583-1025 or 831-655-9222; www.ywcamc.org
 - The YWCA provides phone advocacy, through its crisis line, in English and Spanish, to anyone, anywhere in the county. Individual, family and couples counseling is provided for those who have experienced domestic violence within the previous six months. Fees on a sliding scale. Support groups for women. Legal advocacy (assistance with restraining orders and accompaniment to court hearings) provided at no cost.