Governing Board Report for Student Services

Presented by:
Dr. Larry Walker Interim Vice President for Student Services
December 20, 2017

Athletic

Basketball season is in full swing. The men's and women's teams are very competitive. The men have a 7-4 record and the women 5-5.

The Lobos men recently hosted the 28th annual Monterey Bay Classic. Gavilan College was the champion with MPC taking third with victories over Santa Barbara City College and Solano College. The men reached the championship game of the Ohlone Tournament where they were defeated by Allan Hancock College.

The women will host their own 8 team tournament on December 14-16. The women recently competed in the Cuesta Tournament where they defeated San Diego City College.

Golf team members and Coach Justin Russo participated in the fundraising efforts at the Foundation Gala.

Spring sport practices will commence on January 15.
