Some Good News

MPCTA - You, collectively

- ★ Grew membership across last few years,
 - 120 and climbing
- ★ Won three year contract, through 2022!
- ★ Increased salaries, particularly for part-time instructors
- ★ Compressed salary - no more flat years... seamless steps to the top!
- ★ Handsome retirement incentive - deadline February
- ★ Opened clean lines of communication with Administration - collaborative tone!
- ★ Built sustainable relationship with Academic Senate - Improved Evaluations Ahead!
- ★ Successfully helped election of three new board members - diversity!
- ★ Protected faculty load during covid cuts...

Please come to a conference... we have four seats!

- Fully funded weekend, good food, very social, little getaway (virtual now...)
- Meet faculty from all over the state; in your discipline and others
- Learn about union efforts at other campuses
- Professionalization. Training - learn how to lead, organize, unionize, win...

The screenshot shows the CTA website's navigation bar with links for 'For Educators', 'Our Advocacy', 'Get Involved', and 'Events & Training'. The main content area features a large graphic for the '2021 CCA WINTER CONFERENCE' with the dates 'January 29-30, 2021' and 'Virtual Conference'. To the right, the event details are listed: '2021 CCA Winter Conference', 'January 29-30, 2021', 'Virtual - WebEx', and '9:00 am - 2:00 pm'. A description states: 'The CCA Winter Conference highlights advocacy and will take place virtually.' Below this are links for 'Contact' and 'Add To Calendar', and a prominent blue 'Register' button. The URL 'https://www.cta.org/get-involved' is visible at the bottom left.
