ONLINE MEETINGS

On September 20, 2021, the District became aware that Governor Newsom signed Assembly Bill 361 (Rivas). AB 361, which sunsets on January 1, 2024, provides that, during a declared State of Emergency, legislative bodies may continue to hold public meetings and make them accessible to the public via telephonic or other electronic means without board members or the public physically present, subject to certain conditions outlined below.

The first time a public agency invokes AB 361:

- There must be a “proclaimed state of emergency”
- One of the following three circumstances must exist:
  - State or local officials have imposed or recommended measures to promote social distancing;
  - The meeting is held to determine, by majority vote, whether as a result of the emergency, meeting in person would present imminent risks to the health or safety of attendees; or
  - The majority of the legislative body has voted that, as a result of the emergency, meeting in person would present an imminent risk to the health or safety of attendees.

The following is required for invocations of AB 361 for subsequent meetings:

- The proclaimed state of emergency must remain active; or
- State or local officials have imposed or recommended measures to promote social distancing; and
- Not later than 30 days after teleconferencing for the first time under the AB 361 rules, and every 30 days thereafter, the legislative body shall make the following findings by majority vote:
  - The legislative body has reconsidered the circumstances of emergency, and at least one of the following circumstances exist:
    - The state of emergency continues to directly impact the ability of the members to meet safely in person; or
    - State or local officials continue to impose or recommend measures to promote social distancing.

The requirement that each teleconference location is accessible to the public and that members of the public are able to address the legislative body at each teleconference location is suspended for public meetings held pursuant to AB 361. AB 361 also outlines notice and participation requirements by which the District currently adheres.
