

3105 Pre-Requisites and Co-requisites

References:

Title 5 Sections 55000 and 55003

~~The Superintendent/President is authorized to establish pre-requisites, co-requisites and advisories on recommended preparation for courses in the curriculum. All such pre-requisites, co-requisites and advisories shall be established in accordance with the standards set out in Title 5. Any pre-requisites, co-requisites or advisories shall be necessary and appropriate for achieving the purpose for which they are established. The procedures shall include a way in which a pre-requisite or co-requisite may be challenged by a student on grounds permitted by law. Pre-requisites, co-requisites and advisories shall be identified in District publications available to students.~~

Academic Senate revisions 12/2/10

The Governing Board authorizes the Superintendent/President ~~is authorized~~ to oversee the development of a policies and ~~procedures~~ whereby the District relies primarily upon the Curriculum Advisory Committee to establish pre-requisites, co-requisites, and advisories on recommended preparation for courses in the curriculum. The Curriculum Advisory Committee shall be established in a way that is mutually agreeable to the District Administration and the Academic Senate.

All pre-requisites, co-requisites, and advisories shall be established in accordance with the standards set out ~~forth~~ in Title 5 so that they aid in improving student success, maintaining academic standards, and promoting equitable access. Pre-requisites and co-requisites shall be necessary and appropriate for achieving the purpose for which they are established. Procedures shall be established that enable any student to challenge pre-requisites and co-requisites on grounds permitted by law. Pre-requisites, co-requisites, and advisories shall be identified and clearly explained in District publications available to students. Pre-requisites, co-requisites, and advisories ~~for all courses shall be reviewed during the program review process~~ at least once every six years, except that prerequisites and corequisites for vocational courses and programs shall be reviewed every two years.

See Administrative Procedure [AP 3105]

Adopted: November 19, 1991

Revised & Re-adopted: May 24, 1994